Confused? Call us

Editor, Daily News:

Legalese of the Florida constitutional amendments got you confused?

Us too, so we developed an English language version. We analyzed the six constitutional amendments, the pros and cons, proponents and opponents and developed a comprehensive explanation of each amendment. All the information is available at our Web site — www.lwvcolliercounty.org — or call us at 263-4656 and we will mail you a copy.

We hope that, after reading our analysis, you will agree with us and Vote no on 2 and yes on 1, 3 and 6.

At that same Web site, we have information on the judicial candidates, the presidential candidates and candidates for tax collector, School Board, County Commission District 5, state Legislature, Congress (including voting records), fire districts and mosquito control.

No endorsements — just information to help you be an informed voter.

We have forums scheduled for Oct. 22 on the School Board and constitutional amendments. On Oct. 24 we will have the candidates for County Commission District 5 and state representative District 101. Watch Comcast 11 from 6-8 p.m.

Voter turnout is expected to be record-breaking, so why not vote from the comfort of your home? Request a mail-in ballot by calling the Supervisor of Elections Office at 252-8450 or go to her Web site: www.CollierVotes.com.

Still want to vote in person? Take advantage of early voting starting

Oct. 20. Need a ride to the polls? Call us. Still confused? Call us.
