

www.lwvcolliercounty.org

July 28, 2010

For Immediate Release: Naples, Florida

The League of Women Voters of Collier County has announced that the candidate survey on which it collaborated with the American Association of University Women is now available on its website: www.lwvcolliercounty.org. Responses from the candidates for the School Board and the Collier County Commission are included.

Voters are encouraged to read and assess the candidates answers to thoughtful and informed questions prior to casting a vote in the primary on August 24th or during early voting which will commence Monday through Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. beginning August 9th through August 21. Early voting location site and absentee ballots are available at www.colliervotes.com.

Videos of the Candidate Forums are also available at www.lwvcolliercounty.org. as are the candidates responses to questions that were posed to them by the League and published in e Bella Magazine.

Lydia Galton, President of the League of Women Voters of Collier County, pointed out that "The entire balance of both the School Board and the Board of County Commissioners will be changed by this election. Voters should evaluate the candidates only after careful research and deliberation."

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages informed and active participation in government. It is locally active and nationally respected.

For More Information Contact:

Chris Straton, LWVCC Voter Services Chair
(239) 207-7333 or chrisstraton@yahoo.com